MEMORANDA.
The ship, St. Katherine, Captain W. W. Winn, has cleared for Philadelphia with a cargo of sugar. Captain Winn is by no means on his first trip to Honolulu and he has many friends here who will send their alohas before he starts on the long voyage round the Horn. The St. Frances is one of the crack ships of the Mighell line. She takes sugar valued at $241,714.77. The tug Iroquois was given a send-off by the band when she left for Midway Islands last Saturday. She had sailed up almost at once as Captain Pond desires to save all the coal he can.

ORIENTAL CELEBRATIONS
KEPT THE GAELIC BACK TWO DAYS.

Annual Horse Races at Shanghai, and the Crown Prince's Wedding Observed at Kobe.

The S. S. Gaelic, Captain Finch, lost two days in the Orient on account of holidays, this being the cause of her lateness in arriving here. She is a day behind time, not having been sighted till about five this morning, but will make it up in San Francisco, if not on the way up, as she is booked to leave on the next down trip on June 6.

The passengers and officers of the Gaelic were lucky enough to catch two interesting celebrations this time. They got to Shanghai at the time of the annual races there, and one of the steamship company's agents gave orders that if she was there at that time she might be allowed to lay over one day, to give those on board an opportunity to see the sights. The annual races at Shanghai occupy three days, and occupy them very thoroughly. Purser Brown of the Gaelic, says that the entire population seems to devote all energies to looking after the horses. Money flows like water till the last of the long series of races is over, and there is a general counting up. The day that the Gaelic was at Shanghai was a legal holiday, and most of the passengers and officers took the opportunity to go to Shanghai's splendid track and see the fun. "Shanghai does it in style," said one of the officers, who was informed that Honolulu was going to the business on June 11, a day which the Gaelic will only just miss.

When the steamer got to Kobe it was May 10, the day on which the marriage of the crown prince took place. There was no doing business in a Japanese port on the 10th, and the Gaelic had another day given over to celebration. The Gaelic leaves for San Francisco at five o'clock this afternoon. She has about sixty through cabin passengers, and will take from here all she has room for.

JAPANESE EMIGRATION.
YOKOHAMA, May 12.—It is officially announced that, as a result of the reports from Japanese Consuls regarding the excessive number of Japanese laborers arriving at foreign ports of late, the minister of foreign affairs has issued instructions to the governors of the various prefectures, ordering them to restrict the number of laborers going abroad from each prefecture, according to population.

EARTHQUAKE IN JAPAN.
YOKOHAMA, May 12.—The severest and most prolonged earthquake for some years, occurred at about 2:30 this morning, arousing the whole city.

A NEW LEGATION.
YOKOHAMA, May 12.—As a Japanese legation is to be established shortly in Spain, a minister to that country is now being selected. It is stated that Mr. Akabane, a councillor in the foreign office, will receive the appointment.

JAPANESE GOLD MINING.
YOKOHAMA, May 12.—It is noted that over 100 persons have so far obtained government permits for gold dust washing in the Tokachi district, Hokkaido, the aggregate area leased by them representing over 400 million taels. The localities already worked number only four so far.

You can see in a few minutes all you need to see to pick out all you want. The salesman knows, perhaps, if not, tell him about what you want; he is quick to see and as quick to find it. You go by your own taste and judgment on cloth, but by ours on fit, we suppose—that's the usual way. Next day, or next week, your money back if you want it.

Don't Preach

Economy these good times some one says—but the smokers we cater to are men of affairs who know what's what and we'll get their cigar trade if we convince them they save money buying here.

We pay a little more than some dealers for cigars to get extra care in the selection of the tobacco leaf and for better work.

Our specialty is selling imported cigars that you pay more for elsewhere—and don't get as good tobacco either.
